

As a Christian inter-denominational community there are definitely a few things we agree to agree on. Here are the meres of our faith...

The Apostles Creed

We believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth.

We believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried.

He descended to the dead. On the third day, He rose again. He ascended to Heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

In Other Words...

We believe we were created to have a relationship with a triune God.

We believe that relationship is based on surrender to our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

We believe Christ is the only way to God.

We believe we are sinners who are saved by Gods grace not our works.

We believe in, and rely on, the Holy Spirit working in and through our lives.

We believe the Bible is the written Word of God; it is infallible, inerrant and relevant to our lives today.

We believe in the authority of the scriptures as the mandate for how we should live in the world but not be of it.
